

The background of the image is a collage of several envelopes in various colors: grey, dark blue, light pink, and beige. The envelopes are arranged in a geometric, overlapping pattern, with their flaps and edges creating sharp angles and lines. A white rectangular box is centered in the middle of the image, containing the text "Luxury Envelopes" in a black, elegant serif font.

You want that amazing first impression right from the moment your guests pick up your invitation from their doormat. You want them to see and feel the quality, so good envelopes are important!

Our 2 main stock envelopes match the card we print on - the eggshell white, and soft ivory. We introduced the Pashmina as an alternative, it is a good all round grey/green colour if you fancy something different.

All our stock envelopes are 120gsm or above, which means they feel nice and thick and protect your invitations in the post.

These 3 envelope colours are included in the price of your invitations.
